LEWIS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE MINE WORKERS

It will take some time for the complete returns of the recent election among the United Mine Workers of America to be tabulated, but present indications are that Thomas L. Lewis has been re-elected president of the organization by about 35,000 majority. The vote in this section showed that the enemies of Lewis are in control.

Thomas L. Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, has been re-elected National Organizer.
